CLUB NOTES

One of the most important and enjoyable events of the week was the annual breakfast of the Bayview Reading club, given at the Commercial club, Friday noon. The table was laid in the form of a T, and covers were laid for twenty-three members and several guests. The table was decorated with green and white, these being the club colors. In the center of the table was an immense bunch of carnations, with streamers of green extending to the corners of the table.
Each place card was hand painted in green and white, with a white carnation leaf to it with a green ribbon. After the luncheon a delightful paper was read by Mrs. Lewis.

Section 2 of the Ladies Aid society of the First Methodist church entertained at an April Fools day party Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Keyworth and Mrs. Walter Keyworth, 221 East First South street. There were about eighty guests present who enjoyed the afternoon in games and music. Later in the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, which was artistically decorated in spring flowers and red, yellow and black ribbon.
Foot and cap games were also enjoyed.

Following are the members of the committee of women appointed to visit the city schools, with a view to making helpful suggestions for their conduct: Mrs.
Selden Clawson, Mrs. C. T. Van Winkle, Miss Rosalie Pollock, Mrs. C. E. Allen and Mrs. J. T. Treasure. The work to be taken up is a branch of the National Educational association work.

The members of the Sewing club were delightfully entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. F. J. Leonard at her home, 219 East Fifth South. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and social chat after which a dainty luncheon was served. The dining room and parlors were artistically decorated with pink and white carnations and ferns.

Descendants of the first six members of the Mormon church and members of the Genealogical Society of Utah, are cordially invited to attend the entertainment to be given in Social hall by the Genealogical Society of Utah, Wednesday evening, April 6, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

The current events and current literature section of the Ladies Literary club met Friday afternoon at the clubhouse.
Mrs. John Hughes gave an interesting review of "Della Donna," Hickson's latest book, after which Miss Greenwood gave a review of "Current Events" of the month.

The final rehearsal of the symphony orchestra will be held at Ogden hall this Saturday morning, when Willard Flash-man and Mrs. Siegel, soloists, will rehearse their numbers with the orchestra.
The outlook for a large audience at the Colonial theater Sunday afternoon is promising.

Members of the ladies' auxiliary of the United Commercial Travelers No. 81, have made preparations for a dance to be given at Ogden on the night of April 6, for the purpose of raising funds and arousing interest in the new organization.

A meeting of the Woman's Republican club will be held at the home of Mrs.
A. R. Barnes, Monday afternoon. Mrs.
George Sutherland will give a paper on the "Appeal of Politics to Women." The meeting will be from 2 to 4.

A decidedly interesting play was that presented by the Seventeenth Ward Dramatic club Friday evening. The piece given was "Hearts and Diamonds," and was much enjoyed by the large and appreciative audience.

The Y. P. society of the Norwegian Lutheran Church of Our Savior will meet next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Compton, 342 Chester avenue, between Eighth and Ninth East and Fifth and Sixth South.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. D. C. Dart at her home, 1224 East Second South street. The principal topic will be "Current Events," by Mrs.
Brech.

The Wasatch Literary circle will meet Tuesday afternoon, April 5, at the home of Mrs. H. A. King, 306 East Tenth South street. This being the annual meeting and election of officers, a full attendance is desired.

Mrs. P. W. Madsen entertained the members of the Eleventh Ward Relief society on Thursday at her home. The rooms being beautifully decorated in spring flowers of various colors.

There will be a meeting of the American Woman's league on Saturday afternoon at the new Linden hotel, when many matters of interest to members will be discussed.

CONVINCING CURE OF SKIN TORTURE

Slight Red Eruption Grew to be Terrible—Sleepless Nights and Restless Days Made Life a Burden —Was Completely Discouraged.

CUTICURA CURED AFTER 16 YEARS OF SUFFERING

"For sixteen long years I have been suffering with a bad case of skin disease. While a child there broke out a red score on the legs just in back of my knees, caused by a tight, colored garter. At first it seemed to be a slight affair but gradually it waxed from bad to worse, and at last I saw I had a bad skin disease. I tried many house remedies and also many widely known doctors in different cities but to no satisfactory result.
The plague bothered me more in warm weather than in winter and being on my leg joints it made it impossible for me to walk, and I was forced to stay indoors in the warmest weather.
My hopes of recovery were by this time spent. Sleepless nights and restless days made life an unbearable burden. At last I was advised to try the Cuticura Remedies and I did not need more than a trial to convince me that I was on the road of success. I bought two sets of the Cuticura Remedies (Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills) and after these were gone I was a different man entirely. The Cuticura Remedies certainly did a great deal for me, as it changed my whole career from bad to good. I am now the happiest man that there is at least one true cure for skin diseases. Leonard A. Hawt, 11 Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., July 30 and Aug. 8, 1909."

Rest and peace fall upon distracted households when Cuticura enters. All that the fondest of mothers desires for the alleviation of her skin-tortured and disfigured children is to be found in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment.
Guaranteed absolutely pure and may be used from the hour of birth.
Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent
